Other Financial Policies

- Absences due to illness, behavior issues, or other unforeseen circumstances do not result in credit or make-up time.
- Vacation Credit will not be available. With week to week options, we suggest you plan your weeks of camp around your vacation schedule.
- Discontinued attendance without cancellation does not result in credit
- Please see Summer Parent handbook for all related financial policies

Membership

A free youth membership is provided for all participants in Before and After School and Camp programs. Membership to the YMCA opens many doors for your child, including member rates for all our programs and use of the facility throughout the year. Contact the Welcome Desk for information on how to activate your child's Youth Membership or to inquire about Family Memberships

How to apply for Financial Assistance

Scholarships are available through our Open Doors Program. Applications are available at the Whatcom Family YMCA Business Desk or online at www.whatcomymca.org.
